NOTES FROM OUR NEIGHBORS.

ALBERT.

From "Peck's Bad Boy."
I do wish that pet on Jim's neck was well.
Mell, how about those two bunches of tacks.
Henry Cooper was in the city last Saturday.
John Gallon is laid up with a kick from a horse.
More rain, more rest, out in the droughty, windy west.
Louis Gabbert is making a set of harness for the Haas boys.
P. J. Bartle and F. Gallon made a trip to Pawnee Rock last week.
A. G. Campbell has such big loads of cream that he drives four horses.
One of the Albert players quit the business on account of a bad hand.
Several of the boys went to the Bend Monday night to ride the goat for the last time.
F. Gallon was seen going home several times in the morning. He must be strictly in it.
Children's day exercises will be held today, the 13th, having been postponed because of the rain.
"Peggie," I do not know how the two young men are, but I hope they are all right, for your sake.

OLAFLIN.

From the Leader.
Prospects are decidedly brighter.
H. Raffias has moved out on a farm north of town.
John Weltmer shipped a car load of hogs to Kansas City last night.
George Norris is erecting a "jumbo" windmill to irrigate his garden.
O. S. White injured his finger quite badly while practicing ball Tuesday. Os has been laid up for repairs ever since.
The first nine did not play Ellinwood Tuesday as was anticipated, but we understand a game will be arranged for the near future.
Word was received this week that Ed Dougan, who we reported very sick two weeks ago, died June 2, at Brookfield Mo. Deceased was well known and liked here having made an extended visit to his brothers A. L. and A. H. Dougan last fall. Mr. Ed Dougan was a G. A. R. man and a prominent Mason.
The opinion seems to prevail that it is not best to have a formal Fourth of July celebration here this year, in view of the close times and the fact that harvest comes about that time. There will probably be a ball game here on the Fourth and some families will celebrate with a quiet picnic at the grove. Our people are intensely patriotic, but perhaps it is better not to have a big blowout on account of the reasons above mentioned.

GALATIA NONSENSE.

From "Pumpernickle."
A soaking rain fell on Sunday.
We will have to gag Hicks if the weather continues.
Sheriff Cooper and family Sundayed with E. B. Whaley.
Mr. Thompson will rent his farm and move to Iowa this fall.
Len Gustin and sister, Mamie, were visiting relatives here this week.
The family of Judge McCorkle returned to Great Bend on Tuesday.
Miss Edna Wilkinson is visiting with Miss Mary Harrison, in Great Bend.
Considerable stirring for fall crops is being done. James W. Racy is stirring for alfalfa.
Robert Hoffman has resigned his job as herder for John Porter to rest up for harvest.
Frank Barrows had one wheel of his cart despoiled on the way from the picnic on Saturday.
Mrs. Mitchell lost a shopping bag containing a purse and spectacles on Decoration day.
Rev. Templin and wife are attending commencement at the Wesleyan college at Salina this week.
G. H. Speck has completed a very elaborate system of ditches to irrigate his orchard and garden.
On account of sickness in the family, Rev. Woodburn did not meet his appointment here on Sunday.
Rev. Witts filled Rev. Templin's appointment here on Sunday, and Rev. Gustin filled the Prairie Center appointment.
The friends of Albert Luce, who went to Salina on Monday to pitch for the Normal University team, in a game with the Wesleyan boys, will be glad to know that he played with the winning team. Albert, when in the box, is probably without an equal in the county.

A large number of our young people and a good sprinkling of older ones attended the Sunnyside school picnic on Saturday at Rev. Woodburn's grove, near Hoisington. The Hoisington, Walnut Valley, Maherville, Elmdale and Galatia schools composed the crowd of about 300. The high wind and an abundance of dust made the day disagreeable.

HOISINGTON.

From the Dispatch.
E. F. Boxwell has opened his butcher shop again.
Mrs. Ira H. Clark and children are visiting relatives in Harvey county.
The creamery received over three thousand pounds of milk Monday.
$250 worth of milk is being marketed daily at the Barton county creameries.
James Drake has stocked his pond with fish from a pond near Ellinwood.
Jim and Chas Fenno are in Colorado and have employment at good wages.
Can it be that the thundering oratory so prevalent on Decoration day brings the rains that almost invariably fall on that day.
D. T. Smith was down from Union township Monday. He and family expect to move to Georgia in the near future and will go with a colony from Dorance.
A check for $2,000 has been received from the A. O. U. W. headquarters as payment on the policy held by S. R. Pearson, deceased. It arrived in less than thirty days from the date of death.
Senator Armstrong took the train here for Hutchinson Sunday evening. He says the reformatory will be ready for occupancy July 1st as they have always said. They have in operation now on the grounds pumps and engines sufficient for irrigating 80 acres of ground and the entire equipment did not cost more than $700. There is encouragement in this for the irrigationists.—Ellinwood Advocate.

ELLINWOOD.

From the Advocate.
One of T. B. White's boys of near San Diego, broke an arm one day last week. We did not learn how it happened.
We have now fully as good a prospect for corn as we had for wheat early in the spring. Wonder if the final results will be the same.
Dry weather is supposed to make dogs mad. Well it may or it may not we cannot say, but we know that in Kansas, dry weather makes the people awful mad.
An Ellinwood man came into the Advocate office the other day and offered us a quarter to give his wife a good roast through the paper, for running off with a Great Bend hack driver. Not thinking it would do the husband, the wife or ourselves any good to publish such a story we of course refrained from doing so.
With this issue the Advocate rounds out its seventh year—four of which have been under the present management and ownership. Some times the obstacles have been almost insurmountable all because the dim vistas excluded the future and its good things from us. But nothing daunted. Perseverance, energy, and industry caused us to hold on and we are heartily glad of it. One year more and we will yield the Advocate in the hands of new parties, for some time at least and perhaps prematurely. [Now don't sell out "prematurely," Dun. It is best to take plenty of time to consider such an important move as disposing of a Kansas newspaper.—Ed. DEMOCRAT.]

NORTH SIDE.

By "Lone Star."
"Never say fail," alright here we are quite lengthy.
Materialize regularly, like "Lone Star," ye writers.
The Heizer nine beat our new nine last Saturday a week.
Henry Rediger attended a wedding in the Bend last Thursday.
J. Rediger sowed two acres of alfalfa this spring. It looks fine.
I peg pardon Miss —; but the last took the cake—concerning the two.
That was pretty good figuring about the Gum, wasn't it "Remington?"
A big rain last week. It came just to give us courage to try, try again.
Vester Philips purchased a neat span of ponies of Henry Boyle, last week.
The young cyclone twisted lots of fruit trees off throwing them thirty feet.
A concourse of the Hoisington people attended the picnic in this vicinity last Saturday.
Wesley Meyers now goes to see his best girl at Hoisington regular. Look out for the cards soon.
As usual Rev. Woodburn was greeted with a large crowd to hear his interesting sermon Sunday at 3 o'clock.
Farmers say we need a rain very bad now, the wind has dried the ground awfully the past week.
I would like to find the whereabouts of "Sly Boots." Did the harmless "Lone Star" frighten you?
Quarterly meeting was held at the Pleasant Ridge Church last Sunday. Rev. Montgomery is the pastor.

Charley Pfeister traded his bicycle to Joe Woodburn. The girls will undoubtedly be left now, will they not Joe?
A number of Hoisington's juniors drove over to the home of G. H. Shaw last Saturday night, to join a croquet party.

The farmers intend to plant their ground this fall, but at present are afraid it will be impossible, for every fall it is very dry.

The Walnut Valley, U. B. members met at G. H. Shaw's last Saturday, at 9 o'clock and formed into line for the picnic grounds. A good time is reported.

Remember Children's Day is to be observed next Sunday at the Walnut Valley Church, one week late on account of it being observed elsewhere on its regular day.

A week ago Sunday night that severe wind and rain storm was successful in tearing the west part of G. A. Woodburn's roof off; moved T. Maurer's house 3 inches on the foundation; and also shook the house where N. M. and C. Phillips live, making it quite shiftless. Had there been a little heavier wind it would have been announced a cyclone. As it was it was very bad; and I am glad to note that the damage was not very heavy.

REDWING.

From "Jewel."
Mr. Wilson and family expect to leave for the strip Thursday.

Master Lloyd Hughes was on the sick list a few days last week, but is better now.

Miss Fannie Uden came out from Great Bend to attend the picnic at Dalziel's grove, last Wednesday.

Miss Gertie Keller was home from Claflin a few days last week.

Mrs. Guinther and children, of Lyons, were visiting a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. A. Keller.

Quite a number of Redwing people attended the Sunnyside school picnic at Dalziel's grove last Wednesday.

A pleasant surprise party was given Miss Gertie Keller last Friday evening, it being her sixteenth birthday. The evening was spent in pleasant games, and ice cream and cake was served.

THE readers of the Register are as much mystified as to what is really that paper's position on the silver question, as to what has become of "The People of the Mist." It was too aggravating to leave "Juanna," "Baas" and "Otter" out on that icy mountain ready to slide into eternity or a flat stone.

THE supreme court has decided that Bank Commissioner Bridenthal is entitled to hold his job until 1897. The republicans are now manufacturing charges preparatory to trying to oust him by an investigating committee—at the state's expense, of course. Wonderful is this "business" (?) administration.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Card of Thanks.

On behalf of myself and family I wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors who were so attentive and helpful during the illness and after the death of our departed husband and father.
MRS. A. E. BIDLEMAN.

Advertised Letters.

Following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the postoffice at Great Bend for the week ending June 12, 1895:
Greaney, Miss Lizzie Henry, A. J.
McCurley, Delno. Wesley, A. E.
Wright, Miss Mary Wells, Mrs. Mary
Joseph George Schmitt—foreign.
Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "advertised." WILL E. STOKES, P. M.
